OPTIONS

On Coal Lands Hereabout.

Cleveland Syndicate
Securing Them.

It May be the Hanna Corporation.

Will Control Nearly All the Local Mines.

A Cleveland syndicate has been securing options on Summit county coal properties, with a view, it is said, of consolidating all the mines in the southern part of this county and in the neighborhood of Wadsworth and Doylestown.

A short time ago a Cleveland company, with Dan Hanna at its head, just organized with great capital, gained control of a great majority of the Massillon district mines. The Silver Creek territory was not included, and the options now being secured are on lands in that vicinity and nearer Akron.

Whether the Hanna syndicate is the one which is after the local property, is not definitely known, but it is understood that it is.

BIG FISH

Were Caught at Moffett's Dam.

Akron Men Had Great Luck In Michigan.

Messrs. W. W. McIntosh and M. S. Long drove 42 miles into the interior wilds of Michigan from Alpena, and there caught fish so large that they threw back many pike measuring two feet in length. These well known Akron men have just returned from an outing in the North. The place at which they fished is known as Moffett's Dam. Mr. Moffett was a fisherman and had no occasion to spell the place named for him with an n.

Mr. Long caught a pike weighing 15 pounds and Mr. McIntosh came with in three pounds of tying the score. They were so far from real civilization, however, that only the best fish were of any account and many were returned to the water. A large number of two-pound and three-pound bass were caught.

The Supreme Court's Decision Arraigned.

The Insular Cases the Basis For the Roast.

Interesting Meeting of the American Bar Association.

Denver, Col., Aug. 22.—(Spl.)—The feature of this morning's session of the American Bar Association was an address delivered by Charles P. Littlefield, Congressman from Maine. His subject was "The Insular Cases" and considerable interest was aroused when he said:

"With the greatest respect for the Supreme Court, I feel bound to say it seems to me that they were too profoundly impressed with the supposed consequences of an adverse decision. The insular cases, in the manner in which results were reached, the incongruity of results, and the variety of inconsistent views expressed by the different members of the court, are, I believe, without a parallel in our judicial history."

P. T. Thomas, Sumterville, Ala., "I was suffering from dyspepsia when I commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I took several bottles and can digest anything. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only preparation containing all the natural digestive fluids. It gives weak stomachs entire rest, restoring their natural condition."

Was Changed In Florida

To Suit the Love Making of a Millionaire—Cards Issued.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 22.—A special from Wilmington, N. C., says a few cards have been issued for the marriage of Henry M. Flagler and Mary Lillian Kennan, of Wilmington. The wedding is to take place at 10 a. m. next Saturday at Kenansville, Duplin county, N. C. Mr. Flagler and a party of friends left Palm Beach, Fla., on a special train and will arrive here tomorrow evening. The wedding party, including the members of the Kennan family and the Wilmington guests, will leave here on a special train on Saturday for Magnolia, the nearest railroad station to Kenansville.

Kenansville is the county seat of Duplin county, and is seven miles from the Atlantic coast line. It is a struggling country village with a quaint old court house and contains about 300 inhabitants. For more than 100 years it has been a community of culture and refinement, and previous to the civil war the largest slave holders of that region resided there. The Kennans were among the early settlers, and were prominent in the revolutionary period.

The Kennan homestead is in the little village, and though Miss Kennan's parents reside in Wilmington the wedding will take place there. The affair was to have taken place in June, and all the arrangements were made, but by some oversight the Florida statute passed by Mr. Flagler's special benefit was not complied with in the particular that 60 days' notice of his application for divorce from his wife had not been made. This formality had then to be complied with, and hence the nuptials of the multi-millionaire were postponed to this week.

Miss Kennan is 30 years old and is the daughter of Captain William R. Kennan, of this city, who served gallantly in the Confederate army during the Civil war. She is a young woman of rare culture and is rather a prepossessing lady. Mr. Flagler met her
